Building your Bucks* financial literacy software—now on LBAR.com

For release: March 11, 2009

The Lexington-Bluegrass Association of REALTORS® (LBAR) has incorporated yet another tool to aid consumers in the home buying process. Now on LBAR.com, the financial literacy software titled Building your Bucks is available to the public.

Many websites offer advice for personal finances and financial education. Building Your Bucks: A Blueprint for Your Financial Future is much more. An interactive software tool, developed by LBAR as a Community Education initiative, Building Your Bucks offers that "ah hah!" moment for a consumer to see the outcome of various home financing scenarios.

Together with professional REALTOR® advice and lender guidance, this software offers direction as a homebuyer chooses the best plan in these challenging times. Supported with links to inform homebuyers, Building Your Bucks can transform dreams and wishes into goals and plans. To access the software, visit LBAR.com and click on Building Your Bucks or visit <http://www.lbar.com/BuildingYourBucks/>.

As the region's leading advocate for homeownership, Lexington-Bluegrass Association of REALTORS® (LBAR) understands the value and joy of owning a home. LBAR represents more than 2,200 REALTORS® located in Anderson, Bourbon, Boyle, Clark, Fayette, Franklin, Garrard, Harrison, Jessamine, Madison, Mercer, Montgomery, Scott and Woodford Counties. Visit www.lbar.com or call 859-276-3503 for buying and selling resources and real estate listings.
